(7) Booth layout

The sponsor will determine the layout of booths after taking into account (1) the sequence of application, (2) the number of booths, (3) the products to be exhibited, (4) whether or not demonstrations are to be performed, and so on, and will announce the results at the exhibitors' explanatory meeting.

(8) Prohibition against subleasing, buying or selling, transferring, or exchanging the exhibition area

An exhibitor or exhibition applicant who wishes to sublease, buy or sell, transfer, or exchange part or all of the exhibition area shall first obtain permission from the sponsor.

(9) Constant presence in booth

During the period of the exhibition, an exhibitor or its agent shall wear the exhibitor's badge specified by the sponsor and remain in the booth in order to look after visitors and manage the exhibits.

(10) Compensation

If an exhibitor or its agent causes damage to other booths, facilities used for running the exhibition, or facilities at the exhibition site, or bodily injury to persons, the exhibitor shall be responsible for making compensation for said damage or injury.

(11) Insurance

It is recommended that the exhibitor take out liability insurance for necessary items for the period from when items used in the exhibit are transported to the venue until they are removed.

(12) Exhibition Postponement and Cancellation

- (1) The Organizer may decide to postpone or cancel the Exhibition (including cancellation or temporary suspension during the exhibition period, and the same applies hereinafter in this Article) if the Organizer judges that it is difficult to hold the Exhibition due to natural disasters, epidemics (including the widespread prevalence of an infectious disease and regional prevalence in the area surrounding the Exhibition venue), major disruptions to the social infrastructure (including power, communications, and public transportation), acts of terrorism, exercising of public power, or other force maieure events.
- (2) The Organizer shall not be liable to compensate in any way for damage incurred by exhibiting companies as a result of the Exhibition being postponed or cancelled pursuant to the preceding paragraph; provided, however, that if the Exhibition is cancelled in advance, various expenses, etc. required up until the date of the decision to cancel (including expenses required to pay before the date of the decision to cancel) shall be deducted from the exhibition fee and any balance shall be refunded to exhibiting companies. The refunding of exhibition fees to exhibiting companies by the Organizer only applies to cases specifically provided for in this Article
- (3) Exhibition fees paid by exhibiting companies shall be appropriated to the exhibition fee for the postponed exhibition if the Organizer postpones the Exhibition pursuant to paragraph (1); provided, however, that an exhibiting company may terminate their Exhibit Contract if the exhibiting company notifies the Organizer and the Organizer agrees that a major postponement of the Exhibition will have a material impact on the significance of exhibiting at the Exhibition in terms of their marketing activities. In such case, the Organizer shall refund exhibition fees in accordance with paragraph (2) of this Article.
- (4) The Organizer shall not be liable for any obligations to exhibiting companies other than refunding fees set forth in paragraphs (2) and (3) of this Article, even if the Exhibition is cancelled or postponed.

- (5) The Organizer shall refund exhibition fees in full to exhibiting companies if the Exhibition is cancelled due to grounds attributable to the Organizer. In such case, the exhibiting companies shall not make any claims to the Organizer for compensation for damage incurred as a result of the cancellation of the Exhibition.
- (6) Exhibiting companies may terminate the Exhibit Contract if the Exhibition is postponed due to grounds attributable to the Organizer. In such case. exhibition fees shall be refunded in full but no claims for compensation for damage shall be made to the Organizer even if exhibiting companies incur damage as a result of the postponement of the Exhibition.
- (7) In addition to what is set forth in paragraph (1) of this Article, the Organizer may decide to postpone or cancel the Exhibition at its discretion if a situation arises that may damage the life, health, or property of the exhibitors, visitors, or the Organizer, etc. (including persons involved in the operation of the Exhibition). In such case, the Organizer may apply the provisions of this Article.

(13) Bringing in, taking out, and removing exhibits

Details of the timing for bringing in exhibits and other items to the exhibition site, the timing for the work of setting up the exhibits, and so on will be provided during the exhibitors' explanatory meeting. While the exhibition is being held, you cannot bring in, take out, remove, or move any exhibits without obtaining permission from the sponsor. Exhibitors are responsible for maintaining and cleaning the exhibits and the insides of the booths.

Exhibits and other items that are not removed by the end of the specified removal period will be removed by the sponsor, and the attendant costs and any risk incurred shall be borne by the exhibitor.

(14) Use of microphone and volume restriction

The volume level emitted inside a booth during a product description using a microphone, the volume level from audiovisual equipment, and the volume emitted by the product itself must be no more than 75 decibels, in consideration of the adjacent booths (measured 2 meters from the front of the booth and at a height of 1 meter). Also, it is forbidden to hold live music sessions.

(15) Running of the exhibition and exemptions

To ensure that the exhibition proceeds smoothly, the sponsor may enact and revise various regulations and so on. Also, items not included in these exhibition guidelines may be newly determined and various additions and changes made.

Exhibitors who infringe the exhibition guidelines, the exhibition rules, or provisions in the exhibitor's manual, for example, may be prohibited from exhibiting their products. In such cases, the exhibition fees will not be refunded nor will any other payments that have already been made.

The sponsor will conclude a contract with a security company covering the entire period from preparations, including bringing in materials and equipment, to the removal of these items, in order to manage the site, but will not bear responsibility for damage, loss, or theft of the exhibits.
